(1) The United States Department of the Treasury (Treasury Department) and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) are aware that several state legislatures are in the process of enacting enabling legislation in order to ensure that their citizens may create ABLE accounts during 2015.

(2) While the Treasury Department and the IRS are working on guidance related to Section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code providing for qualified ABLE programs as of the date of issuance of IRS Notice 2015-18, it is anticipated that ABLE programs may be in operation in some states before such guidance can be issued.

(3) The Treasury Department and the IRS do not intend for the lack of guidance to discourage states from enacting their enabling legislation and creating their ABLE programs.

(4) The Treasury Department and the IRS are assuring states that enact legislation creating an ABLE program in accordance with Section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code, and individuals establishing ABLE accounts in accordance with such legislation, that they will not fail to receive the benefits of Section 529A merely because the state legislation or the account documents do not fully comport with the guidance when it is issued.

(5) The Treasury Department and the IRS intend to provide transition relief with regard to necessary changes to ensure that state programs and accounts meet the requirements in the guidance to be issued, including providing sufficient time after issuance of the guidance in order for changes to be implemented.
