The ABLE National Resource Center

The ABLE National Resource Center (ABLE NRC) is the leading, comprehensive source of objective, independent information about federal- and state-related ABLE programs and activities, including guidance on tax-advantaged ABLE savings accounts.

Our mission is to educate, promote and support the positive impact ABLE can make on the lives of millions of Americans with disabilities and their families.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the ABLE National Resource Center website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ABLE logo and the text "NATIONAL RESOURCE CENTER" and "ACHIEVING A BETTER LIFE EXPERIENCE ACT". To the right of the logo, there are links for "ABOUT", "SUBSCRIBE", "GIFT CARD", "DONATE", "CONTACT", and "EN ESPAÑOL". Below the navigation bar, there is a large banner image of a woman in a wheelchair smiling while working at a desk. Overlaid on the banner is the text "WELCOME TO #ABLETOSAVE MONTH 2022!" followed by a paragraph: "Join us throughout the month of August, as the ABLE National Resource Center hosts events and shares ABLE tools, including: panels featuring ABLE account owners and family members, as well as ABLE program administrators and subject matter experts, ABLE Decision Guides, informational videos and more!". At the bottom of the banner is a red button that says "LEARN MORE".

2022 #ABLEtoSave Campaign (Slide 1 of 3)

#ABLEtoSave is a month-long campaign designed to provide information and resources about the ease, use and significance of ABLE accounts for people with disabilities.

Together, we can increase awareness across the nation and expand the number of people with disabilities benefitting from ABLE accounts.

ABLE NRC thanks our #ABLEtoSave Sponsors:

2022 #ABLEtoSave Campaign (Slide 2 of 3)

Throughout August, ABLE NRC will be hosting panels with ABLE account owners and family members, ABLE program administrators and national ABLE subject matter experts.

We will also be sharing ABLE success stories and strategies, and tools you can use such as our ABLE Decision Guides.
